Distribution of Inheritance According to the Book of Allah (Al-Quran)

Allah says in Sura An-Nisaa: 7-14

7. There is a share for men and a share for women from what is left by parents and those nearest related, whether, the property be small or large - a legal share.

8. And when the relatives and the orphans and Al-Masâkin (the poor) are present at the time of division, give them out of the property, and speak to them words of kindness and justice.

9. And let those (executors and guardians) have the same fear in their minds as they would have for their own, if they had left weak offspring behind. So let them fear Allâh and speak right words.

10. Verily, those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans, they eat up only a fire into their bellies, and they will be burnt in the blazing Fire!

11. Allâh commands you as regards your children's (inheritance); to the male, a portion equal to that of two females; if (there are) only daughters, two or more, their share is two thirds of the inheritance; if only one, her share is half. For parents, a sixth share of inheritance to each if the deceased left children; if no children and the parents are the (only) heirs, the mother has a third; if the deceased left brothers or (sisters), the mother has a sixth. (The distribution in all cases is) after the payment of legacies he may have bequeathed or debts. You know not which of them, whether your parents or your children, are nearest to you in benefit, (these fixed shares) are ordained by Allâh. And Allâh is Ever All-Knower, All Wise.

12. In that which your wives leave, your share is a half if they have no child; but if they leave a child, you get a fourth of that which they leave after payment of legacies that they may have bequeathed or debts. In that which you leave, their (your wives) share is a fourth if you leave no child; but if you leave a child, they get an eighth of that which you leave after payment of legacies that you may have bequeathed or debts. If the man or woman whose inheritance is in question has left neither ascendants nor descendants, but has left a brother or a sister, each one of the two gets a sixth; but if more than two, they share in a third; after payment of lagacies he (or she) may have bequeathed or debts, so that no loss is caused (to anyone). This is a Commandment from Allâh; and Allâh is Ever All-Knowing, Most Forbearing.

13. These are the limits (set by) Allâh (or ordainments as regards laws of inheritance), and whosoever obeys Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad SAW) will be admitted to Gardens under which rivers flow (in Paradise), to abide therein, and that will be the great success.

14. And whosoever disobeys Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad SAW), and transgresses His limits, He will cast him into the Fire, to abide therein; and he shall have a disgraceful torment.

For explanation of technical terms, an authentic book on Islamic Law of Inheritance may be consulted. One such book is "Islamic Law of Inheritance" by Muhammad Mustafa Khan, published by Kitab Bhavan, New Delhi, India

THE GOLDEN PRINCIPLES OF ISLAMIC LAW OF INHERITANCE

Position of Spouses

- (1). The husband is entitled to 1/2 (maximum) or 1/4 minimum) share from the property of their deceased husband.
- (2). The wife or wives are entitled to 1/4 (maximum) or 1/8 (minimum) share from the property of the deceased husband.
- (3). The spouse (husband or widow/s as the case may be) get the maximum share i.e. Husband 1/3 and the widow 1/4 if the deceased spouse does not leave behind his or her (i.) child and (ii.) any agnatic descendant (the child of any agnatic male descendant however so low).
- (4). If the above two conditions are not satisfied the spouse is entitled only to the minimum share (1/4 in case of husband and 1/8 in case of widow/s).

(5). Widow/s who were divorced by the deceased husband are entitled to their right of inheritance provided the divorce was 'Rajai' (revocable) or it was 'Bain' (irrevocable) but the husband died during iddat period of the widow.

(6). Spouses are primary heirs so they are never excluded. Neither they exclude blood relations nor they are excluded by any blood relation.

Position of Parents

(1). Both mother and father are primary heirs so they are never excluded. If alive they are always entitled to a share: mother 1/3 (maximum) or 1/6 (minimum); father 1/6 (minimum) or the entire amount if no other heirs are present. Mother excludes all types of grandmothers maternal as well as paternal. Paternal grandmothers are also excluded by father.

Position of Grandparents

(1). Paternal grandparents and great grandparents substitute parents if they are predeceased. The nearer one excludes the distant. However grandfather is not entitled to the special treatment; when mother and spouse are alive they take their maximum share. Grandfather does not exclude paternal grandmother. The grandmother/s, unlike mother, gets only 1/6. She never gets 1/3.

Position of Children and Descendants

(1). Sons and daughters are primary heirs. They always inherit.

(2). A son's daughter/s become heirs like a daughter if he, the son, is predeceased. If there is one daughter, then son's daughter/s get 1/6; if there are more than one daughter then son's daughter/s are excluded. In the presence of her male counterpart (e.g. son's son) a son's daughter becomes a residuary and shares the residue according to the principle "double share to male". Daughter or son's daughter's position is not affected by marriage, dissolution of marriage, place of residence etc.

(3). A son's son is completely excluded by a son.

Position of Brothers and Sisters

(1). Uterine brothers and sister (related through mother only) do not inherit in the presence of father, grandfather, daughters, son, son's son and son's daughters.

(2). Full brothers and sisters do not inherit in the presence of father, sons and son's sons. They are also excluded by the true grandfathers, with few exceptions.

(3). The full brother converts the full sisters into a residuary and they inherit the residue in the ration 2:1. Same principle applies to consanguine brothers and sisters.

Position of Other Relatives

(1). The following relations have no claim except if they are mentioned in No. 1 above or in article VII. Stepchildren, daughter/s-in-law, son/s-in-law, parent/s-in-law, brother/s and sister/s-in-law, adopted children, any other person not related by blood to the deceased.

(2). In some cases where certain heirs mentioned above do not survive, certain distant blood relatives may be entitled. In all such situations, a knowledgeable Muslim may be consulted to determine their share.

Principle of Awl and Raad

(1). *Principle of Awl (When the total sum of the fractional shares allotted to the Quranic heirs exceeds unity, the already allotted shares are readjusted by using a procedure where all shares are reduced proportionately. This situation arises only in the presence of daughters or sisters.) and Raad (When the total sum of the fractional shares allotted to the Quranic heirs is less than unity. The shares are readjusted in proportion to their already allocated shares. This situation may arise in the absence of a residuary heir.) may be applied in cases where necessary.*
